In Memoriam

The loss of Mrs. Mary Lou Tedder, Art teacher, at John S. Battle for eleven years, was a great one for students and faculty. She dedicated thirty-two years of her life to the teaching profession, and beneficially influenced the lives of many young people. Mrs. Tedder's aims and accomplishments shall not be forgotten nor go unrewarded.

"To live in hearts we leave behind, is not to die."

Our Dedication

It is seldom that students find a teacher who is willing to sacrifice as much time, effort, or energy to any cause as she has to John S. Battle High School. It is to one of these select few that we dedicate the 1971 Phoenix.

Although Mrs. Brenda Hagy has only taught two years at John Battle, she has been an inspiration to all. We admire her because of her knowledge and her dedication to John Battle. She has helped students to know and understand things in life which really count. She seems to take a personal interest in each individual student which we think is an important quality of a good teacher. We respect her because she respects us, and because she has the courage to stand for that which she believes to be right.

It is with sincere appreciation and warm regard that the Phoenix staff humbly dedicates the 1971 Phoenix to Mrs. Brenda Hagy.

The beginning of a new era has been started in the field of interscholastic athletics. For the first time John S. Battle produced girls Junior Varsity and Varsity basketball teams. They played a full schedule of eleven games. Even though the losses were numerous, with each new game they showed additional improvement. Next year with the experience gained this year, the coaches feel John Battle will rank higher in the standings. The coaches would also like to thank the J.V. Cheerleaders for their untiring support.

Varsity

fire up

Battle's Varsity Cheerleaders, sponsored by Mrs. David Green, have worked diligently to promote spirit among the students in all sport seasons.

As a prerequisite to good teamwork, the cheerleaders, headed by Vickie Kyle, attended cheerleading camp in Cookeville, Tennessee where they were awarded five ribbons for various competitive events, and the coveted award, a spirit stick.

Returning home, the cheerleaders promoted various projects including sponsoring a cheerleading clinic at Erwin, judging a cheerleading clinic in Hampton, Tennessee, and planning a special event every week for the football team.

The highlight of the year, however, was Homecoming week. At this time, the cheerleaders organized a contest allowing each club to enter, each decorating a separate wing of the hall. The prize for best decoration was awarded the Trojan J. V. Cheerleaders by the judging Virginia High cheerleaders.

The J.V. Cheerleaders had an exciting year as they sparked spirit at dear ole Battle. Under the supervision of Mrs. Richard Hagy, sponsor, they returned from Tennessee Tech Cheerleading Camp with five ribbons; cheered the boys' J.V. teams and Girls' basketball team to victory. It was a busy and hectic year, but thoroughly enjoyed by all eight girls.

Homecoming decorations

The Trojans observed Homecoming this year with a burst of spirit which backed our team to a 25-22 victory over Grundy. Different clubs decorated parts of the hall, and by the day of the game the whole school was covered by layers of crepe paper, pictures and posters. A prize of $25 was awarded at the pep rally to the J.V. Cheerleaders who won first place for having the hall showing the most spirit. The FHA, Band, FBLA, and Science Clubs received honorable mentions.

The Student Cooperative Association was involved in many activities this school year. The organization successfully planned and presented a Veteran's Day Assembly and Breakfast. This breakfast featured Representative William Wampler as guest speaker and local representatives from the Veteran's organization as invited guests. The S.C.A. also purchased a Veteran's plaque and presented it to the school.

During Christmas the S.C.A. sponsored a Santa Pal

selected from Battle students.

The S.C.A. made plans to take part in a Domestic Exchange Program in April. Other goals they hoped to accomplish included creating a better system of selecting the best club for Awards, promoting more club participation in morning devotions, helping the March of Dimes in their Bread Sale, having a parliamentarian hold a class open to all club and class presidents on parliamentary procedure, and re-opening the Clinic.

The S.C.A.'s goals for the 1970-'71 school year were to unite the student body in every possible aspect, to promote good will among all concerned, and most important, to make the students aware and encourage participation in their Student Government.

Future teachers of America

The basic purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to assist students in examining career opportunities in the field of education, and in studying and being involved in educational issues.

Girls athletic association

The Girls Athletic Association, sponsored by Miss Julia Carmichel, is an organization which sponsors girls' volleyball, basketball, and bowling. As a recognition of merit in basketball and volleyball, the organization purchases the monogrammed "B" for those girls excelling in the selected sports. To help finance the giving of letters and other activities, the club sponsors concession stands at various ball-games.

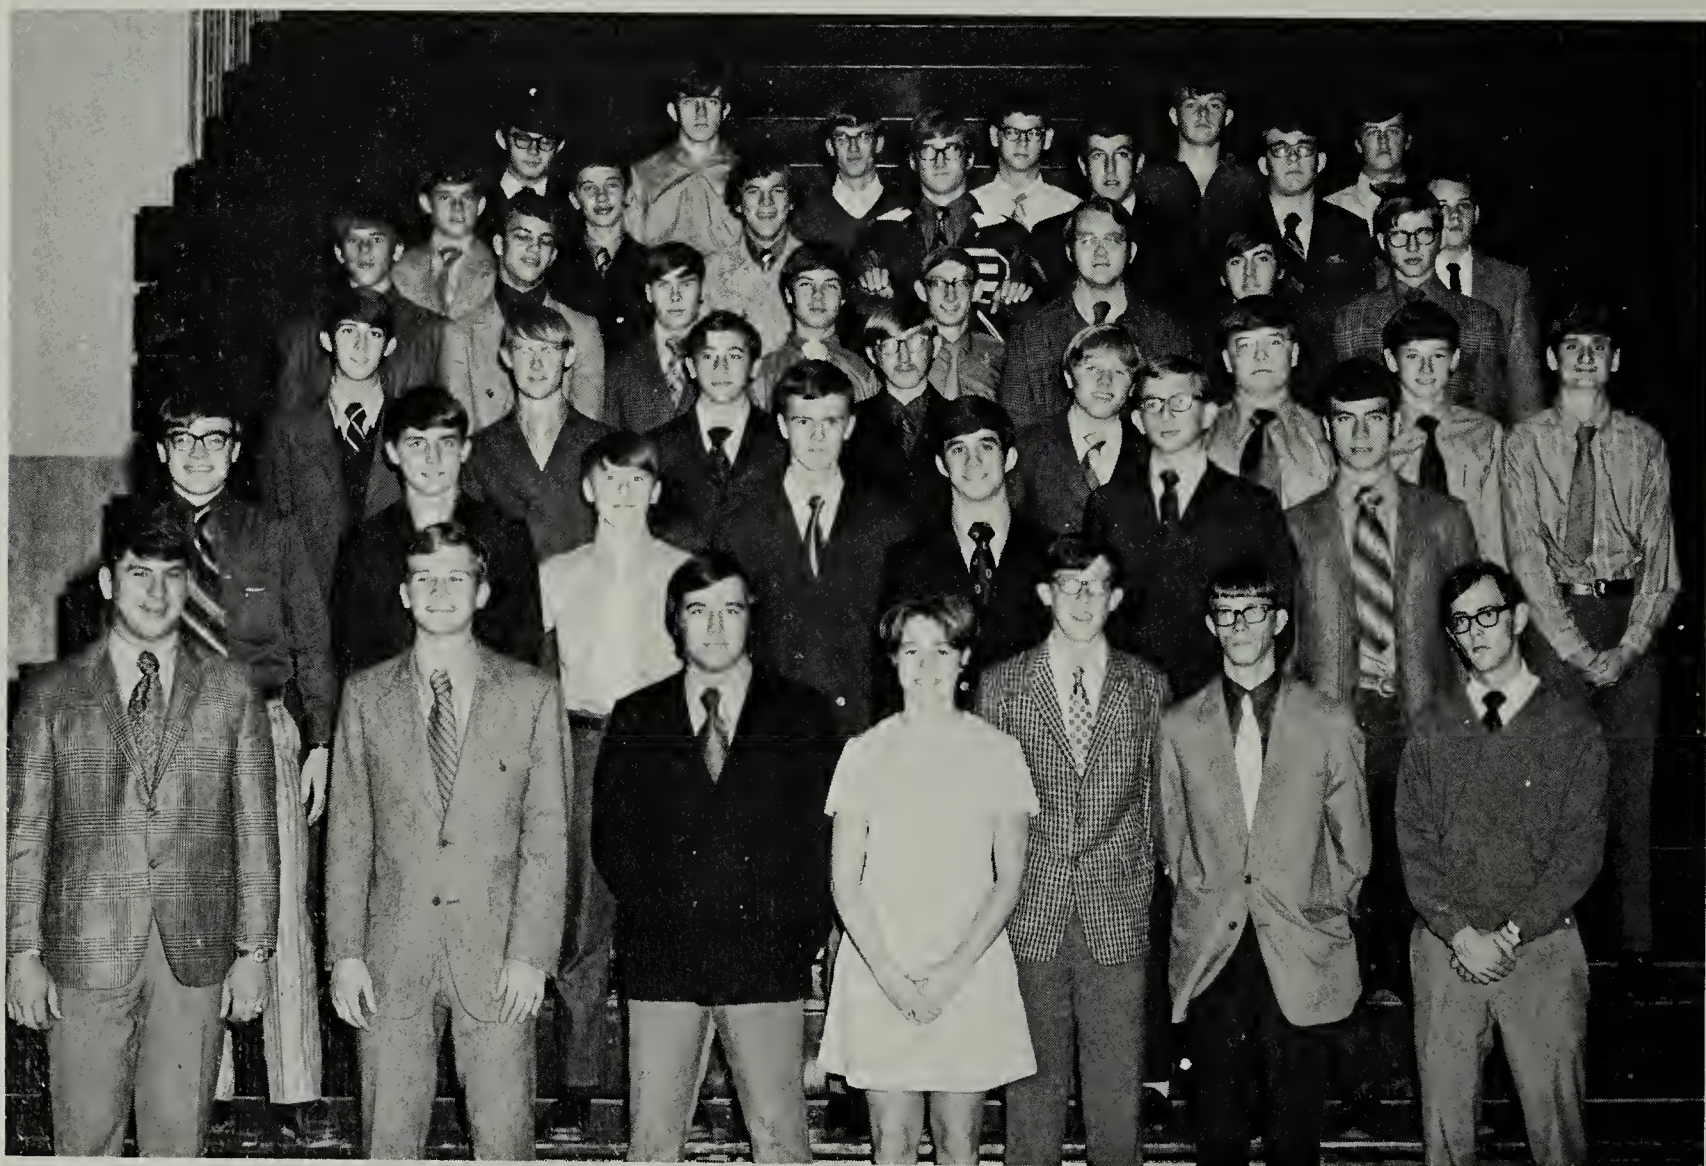

G.A.A. members have many spring projects. Each spring G.A.A. members bowl for six weeks. At the end of the six-weeks, the organization awards a trophy to the girl with the highest bowling average. The final spring activity sponsored by the G.A.A. is the Athletic Picnic held for all students participating in the athletic program.

Annual Projects

Every year the Jr. Civitans participate in special activities as a service to the school and the community. These activities include selling Claxton fruit cakes, providing food for a Thanksgiving dinner, sponsoring a Santa Pal family, sponsoring the Sadie Hawkins Day dance, and attending the District Convention.

1970-'71 Projects

This year the Jr. Civitans took part in many projects for the first time. Some of these include replacing brackets and shelves in bookcases in the classrooms, organizing a local campaign for better treatment of prisoners of war in Vietnam, and purchasing chairs for use in the library.

The Alpha Tri-Hi-Y is a service club at John S. Battle High School. Its purpose is to render service to the school and to the surrounding community. In the past, members have helped with the March of Dimes Bread Sale, the Heart Fund, and the Muscular Dystrophy Drive. At the school, the club put up bulletin boards, decorated a hall for Spirit Week, sponsored a bus to the Graham football game, cleaned the stage for pep rallies, and hosted an Open House for Battle students at the Y.M.C.A. The club has also had swimming parties for the members and guests.

Each year the Alpha Tri-Hi-Y members are invited to attend the "Y.M.C.A. Youth in Government" program in Nashville. This is a three day trip in which members from all Tennessee clubs "take over" the capital building. Last year the 1970 Legislature appointed Susan Owens 1971 Senate Message Clerk, and Debbie Kilby was nominated for "Outstanding Statesman" in the fourth district.

Debate

Sponsor, Mr. Minton; Hugh Davis, Kay Benfield, Linda Warden, Chris Placek.

The Debate Society has as its chief aim the furthering of the skills of reasoning, research, and extemporaneous speaking.

A J.S.B. debater must first be a speaker. He must present his facts, attempting to persuade his audience to accept his point of view.

He must also be a fighter. He must acquire the ability to withstand heavy criticism of defeat, and then, to recover and rebuild his argument under pressure.

In debating, winning is not the sole objective, a debater derives his satisfaction from knowing that he is an expert in his field, and that he possesses the ability to argue his convictions with skill and force.

The Annual Staff consisted of members from grades nine through twelve, and each grade is headed by a managing editor; Senior, Chris Koch; Junior, Michelle Townsend; Sophomore, Debbie Collins, and Freshman, Tim Tabor. These editors distributed work among various members and received assignments from the Editor-in-Chief, Phyllis Bowers. Through co-operation of each, working together, the quality of an excellent yearbook was accomplished.

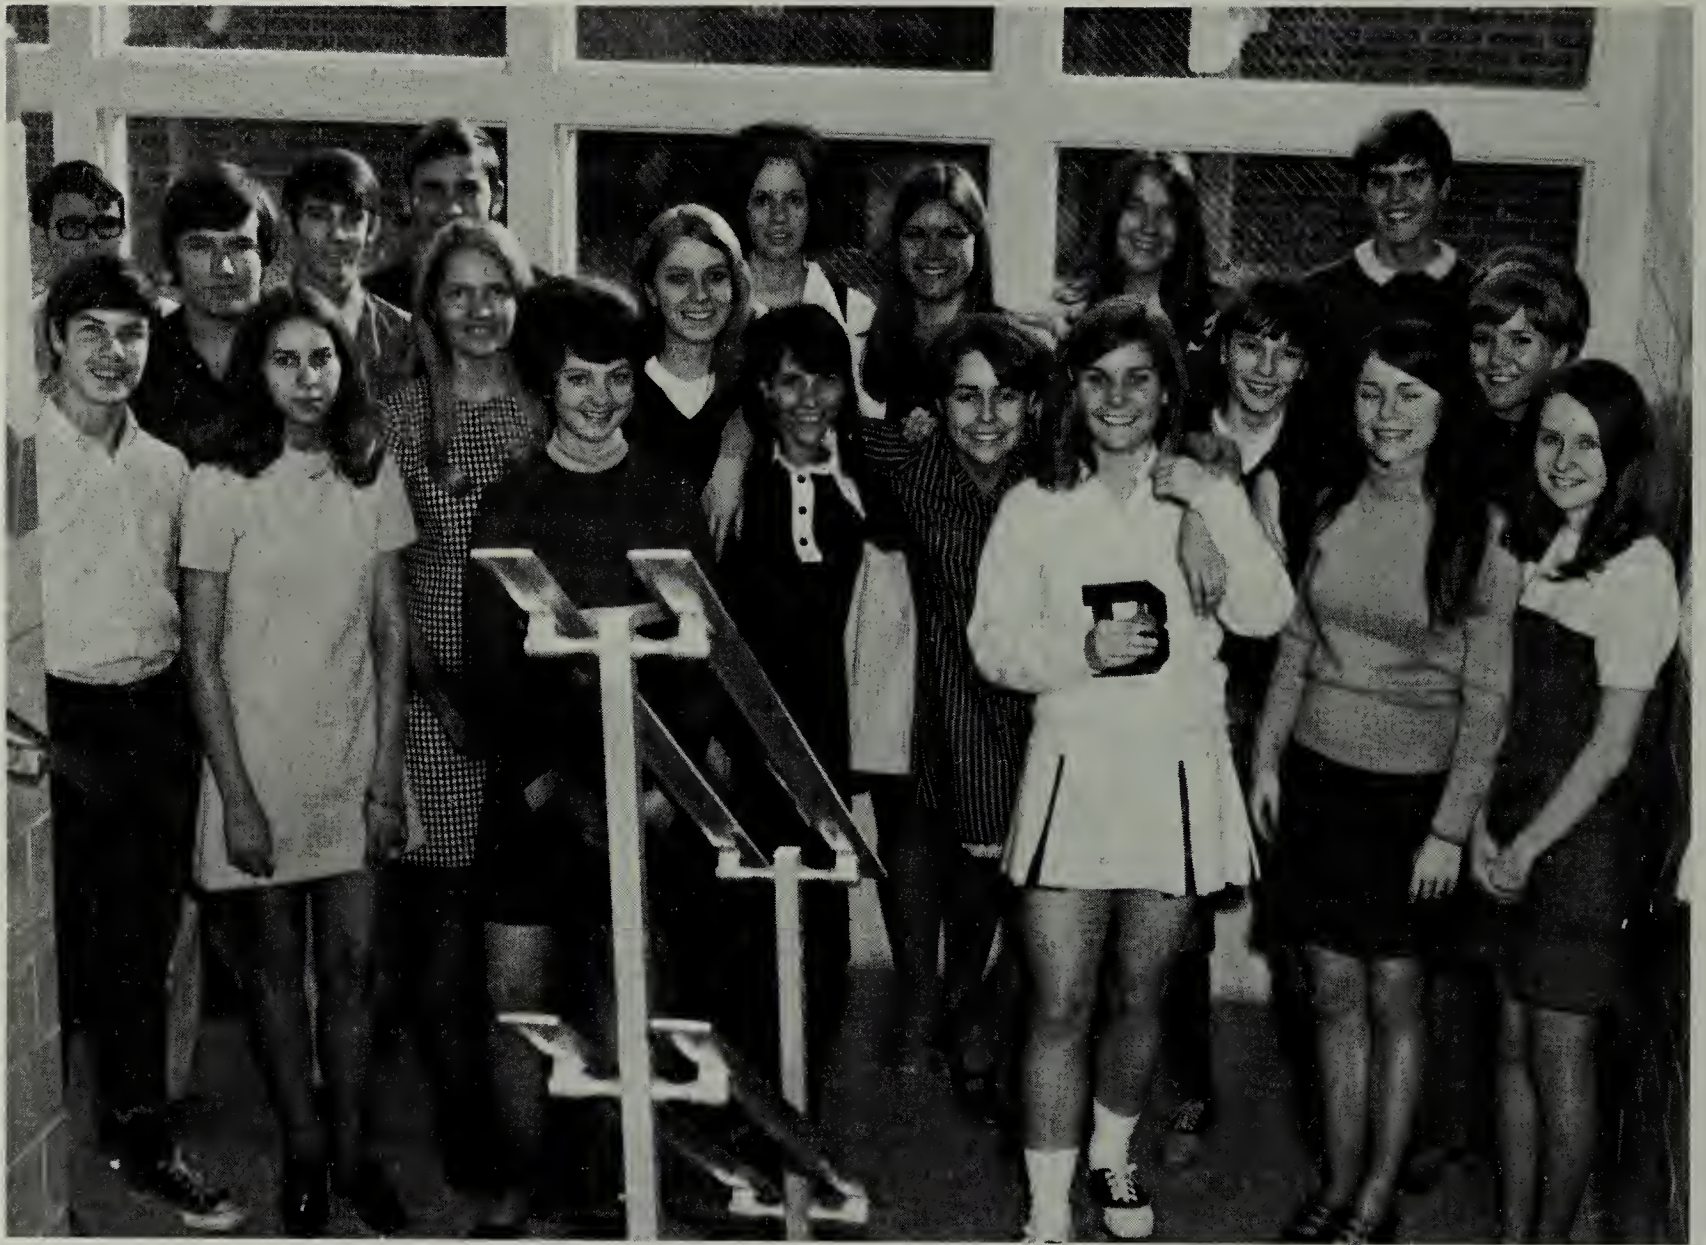

This year the staff worked especially hard to produce a larger, organized annual with a finer quality cover. The photographers Tony Brown and Chris Long endeavored to capture students in the midst of routine school activities. Then each activity was fitted to the theme of the yearbook, "Emotions."

To raise money for the yearbook, the staff participated in bake sales, carried on a more effective circulation sales program, and sold over a thousand dollars in business advertisements.

Because much work was done, much was accomplished. Staff members actively participated in many extra-curricular activities in order to evenly represent the students. Many also found time to head other clubs and activities while working on the staff. Each staff member was special in respect to the work he accomplished and ideas he shared with other members. Each may now be proud of the common goal, "Phoenix 1971."

Future Business Leaders of America

The Future Business Leaders of America Club is open for membership to all students enrolled in business classes who maintain a C average in those subjects.

The purpose of the F.B.L.A. is to sponsor projects to improve the facilities of the business department. This year, the club entered a float in the Abingdon Tobacco Festival and won a $60.00 award. Club members purchased a secretarial desk, equipped with a filing unit, and a secretarial chair.

We are Seniors . . . no, now we should say we were Seniors. But where has all the time gone? It went by so fast. Those first few days were days of adaption. When an announcement was made to Seniors — that meant us! Underclassmen were made to respect us — stand up — here we are . . . Seniors. Who were the biggest idiots in the cafeteria? US! Almighty Seniors.

But what did it all really mean? This was our year for final recognition. Plans for colleges had to be definite — no more wild dreams. All the dances, football games, basketball — we watched for the last time as students of J.S.B. So many activities, which in reality were trivial, to us were the greatest ever!

And now, after the prom . . . what should we expect?

Graduation is so sad, so solemn, so sentimental. With us we'll take a treasury of memories that will never stray from our minds . . .

"In coming years to the Trojans we'll return,
Our loyalty will grow and ever burn."

Nearing the end of our secondary education and encouraged by past experiences, we began to realize the importance of our last two years of high school. We wanted to make this year one of the best.

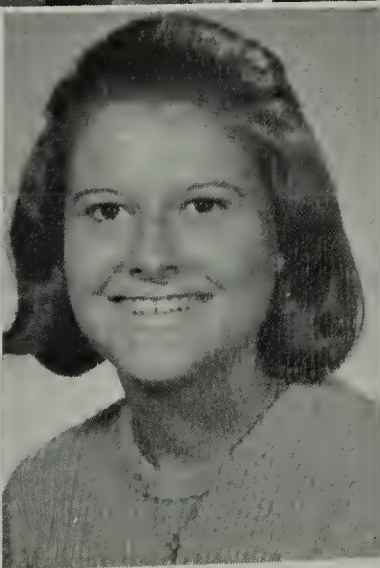

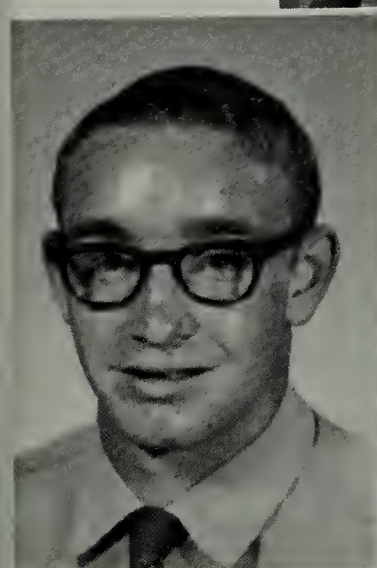

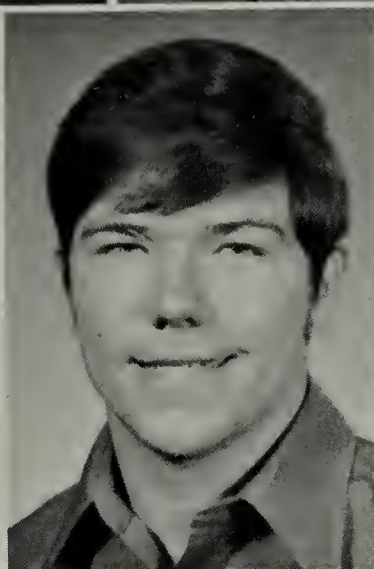

We survived our first tries at college boards and began to think seriously about applying to colleges. The Class of '72 met the problems that have faced past classes as they worked on Junior Projects in order to meet the financial obligations. The highlight of the '70-'71 school year was the Junior-Senior Prom. We were host to the Seniors. The Prom was beautiful and a great success. The coming of the class rings symbolized the approach of our Senior year.

We look back on our Sophomore year as the most spirited year we have spent. We took part in making posters and signs to boost spirit at Junior Varsity games, and we realized that there was more participation among the students.

With our second year of foreign language, plus biology, and geometry behind us, we heaved a sigh of relief.

We felt as if we had climbed a mountain, yet there was so much left to do! With our Junior year ahead of us bringing the hardships of giving a Prom, and our Senior year with the final plans for college, we could not give up. We looked upon our final years with determination, hope, and anticipation.

As we walked into B.H.S. the first day of our Freshman year, we felt proud because finally we had the eighth grade to look down upon.

We managed to stay busy throughout the year. There were ball games and pep rallies which we attended and at which we cheered. We became more active in clubs and club activities. And then there were our studies. It took a lot of time and much concentrated studying, but we managed to pass everything.

As we look back now, we realize we have grown with B.H.S. It was a year of hard work and fun. But we know it has been a year we'll always remember.

This was the "first" for us. It was the first of attending a high school. It all seemed so complicated at first, but finally we were able to adjust. Even the race against the clock between classes became easier after awhile. For the first time we became a member of the high school crowd. We found that the games were more meaningful to us. We were able to join clubs and participate in them. We also had a different teacher for each class which was a great change. We felt "bigger" now that we were a part of the high school scene.

Emotions tall
 small Emotions rise
 fall Emotions up down
 Emotions grow where the heart abounds.

High's only high
 Low's only low
 Real's truly real
 Show's truly show
 Emotions guide
 Do you not see
 Each moment's view of reality?

— Anonymous

This is the end of another hectic year and the Annual Staff has worked hard, in order to publish the best Phoenix ever. We hoped to have expressed some of the emotions high school students developed through their experiences at John S. Battle. These emotions could be found in the mental, physical, and social aspects in the life of every B.H.S. student.

Without the great cooperation I received from the Annual Staff, teachers, and especially you, the student body, this yearbook could not have been a success. I would like to gratefully thank all those who worked to help make this 1871 Phoenix possible. I would especially like to thank Miss Vermillion for her time and effort she devoted to this yearbook.

Chris,
Too a nice nut! We ^{have had} some nice times and science has experiences not to be forgotten. May we have many more happy experiences and may our friendship continue through high school and ~~into~~ beyond. Best wishes and good luck as you go through the future.
